NEW LEGISLATION

Due to a change in legislation from 1st March 2004 we are required to check the identification of vendors before proceeding to market any property, and purchasers on acceptance of an offer and before we can instruct solicitors to proceed. This is a legal requirement and applies to all Estate Agents. Suitable identification should include either a current passport or new style driving licence with photo together with a utility bill for proof of address.

NOTICE

These particulars, whilst believed to be accurate, are set out as a general outline only for guidance and do not constitute any part of an offer or contract. Any intending purchaser should not rely on them as statements or representations of fact and should satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to their accuracy. No person in the employment of Gareth Holland or Hough & Co. has any authority to make or give any representation or warranty in relation to this property.

The Agent has not tested any of the services or installations to the property and so cannot verify that they are in working order. A buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor or Conveyancer.

References to the Tenure of the property are based on information supplied by the Vendor. Prospective purchasers should consult their own Solicitor for verification.
